Sonya Rosenberg Receives the 2021 Chicago Leadership Award from the Coalition of Women's Initiatives in Law

On October 21, Labor & Employment partner Sonya Rosenberg received the 2021 Chicago Leadership Award from the Coalition of Women's Initiatives in Law as part of their National Leadership Forum. Sonya was honored for her work as Chicago Chapter President, growing the chapter and organizing a wide array of virtual programs in a challenging year. Sonya continues to serve at the Coalition as a National Board Member, furthering its goals of fostering career advancement and professional development, promoting dialogue, and providing a support-network among members to help address the many issues facing women lawyers and women's initiatives today.
