Frank Paolini Quoted in Financial Advisor Magazine on Single-Family Offices Using Elite Trusts and Estates Lawyers

Frank Paolini, a partner in the Private Wealth practice group, was quoted in the article "Elite Trusts And Estates Lawyers Working With Single-Family Offices And Family Businesses," which was recently posted on Financial Advisor Magazine. The article explores the tendency of the ultra-wealthy to heavily rely on the services of elite trusts and estates lawyers.

"The families we work with have very complex situations," said Frank. "There are no cookie-cutter solutions that make sense for them. Very often, my team and I are developing unique solutions to address their needs and wants. It's often an intricate puzzle and we enjoy finding creative powerful solutions."
