Paul Walker-Bright Quoted in Law360 Insurance Authority Article "Tech Co.'s Partial Win Opens Small BIPA Coverage Window"

Paul Walker-Bright was quoted in the recent Law360's Insurance Authority article "Tech Co.'s Partial Win Opens Small BIPA Coverage Window." Paul is quoted multiple times throughout the article in which he shares his thoughts on various aspects of an Illinois appeals panel decision that a cyber insurer must defend technology company Rempres LLC in a case involving the state's Biometric Information Privacy Act (BIPA). The decision opens up the possibility that having a media liability insurance policy could lead to BIPA coverage, depending on the phrasing of the clauses in the policy, which are not standardized.
